ACCESSIBILITY

By coach

There are two places in the city centre where your coach may stop for 15 minutes to drop off or pick up passengers.

You can get to Vleemarkt (a 450-metre walk from Grote Markt) via Keizerstraat, drop off your passengers in Vleemarkt and exit the city via Biest and Frederik de Merodestraat.

You can reach Wollemarkt (a 250-metre walk from Grote Markt) via Sint-Katelijnestraat and Sint-Romboutskerkhof, drop off your passengers in Wollemarkt and exit the city again via Goswin de Stassartstraat.

Free parking available for coaches in Douaneplein.

By train

Thanks to its central location, Mechelen is easy to reach by train from practically any Belgian or European city. Mechelen has 2 stations: Mechelen and Mechelen-Nekkerspoel. Both stations are walking distance from the city centre.

You will find more information about the timetables of the trains on the website www.belgianrail.be.

By bus

You can get to the city centre and the bus station in Veemarkt in just a few minutes from the station of Mechelen with the shuttle bus (bus line 1).

Timetable: www.delijn.be

By car

Cars are banned in a large part of the city centre of Mechelen from 11 a.m. until 6 p.m. You can park cheaply in the car parks in Rode-Kruisplein and Zandpoortvest, on the fringe of the city. The car park in Douaneplein is free. You can easily reach Mechelen, which is centrally located in Flanders, via the E19 motorway. Coming from Antwerp, you can choose between Exit 9 (Mechelen-Noord) and Exit 10 (Mechelen-Zuid). Then follow the signs for Mechelen-Centrum.

Attention!

Cars are banned in a large part of the city centre during daytime, meaning access for motorised vehicles is limited during these times.

Mechelen sculpture tour

Mechelen has produced generations of leading sculptors. Lucas Fayd'herbe - the ‘Bernini of the North’ - was a genius of Baroque sculpture, and decorated many of the city’s churches. Before World War I, Mechelen native and famous fauvist Rik Wouters didn’t just produce paintings of his muse, ‘Nel’, but also immortalised her in bronze. On the streets and façades of Mechelen, from fantastic oak pulpits to the ‘Little Devils House’, you’ll see how creative minds have filled their city with gargoyles, nymphs, cherubs, and Madonnas.

Do you want to give your group a taste of Mechelen?

Are you looking for a suitable restaurant? Then take your pick from the list of restaurants on our website. All these restaurants have the capacity to receive your group in a qualitative manner.

A typical Mechelen speciality is Malines chicken. This chicken is a cross-breed of cuckoo-patterned domestic farm chickens and imported Oriental chickens. Malines chicken meat is firm and deliciously tender. It is used in several dishes and pairs nicely with a refreshing glass of Gouden Carolus.

Restaurants with an (*) serve Malines chicken.

BOOKING A DAY-TRIP

Directly to Visit Mechelen

1. Choose your preferred activity for your day out in Mechelen from our programme and contact us by letter or e-mail to make your booking.

2. We must receive your request at least 14 days before the day of the planned visit. For requests received between 13 and 7 days before the visit, we can only offer the Burgundian City Walk, subject to the availability of guides.

3. Once you have made your booking, you will receive a Confirmation of Programme. Only then you have a firm reservation.

4. Once we have received payment, which must be made no later than 7 days before your visit, we will send you the necessary vouchers. A one-off administrative fee of 5 euros will be charged for every booking.

Activities of other partners

The terms and conditions for activities vary, depending on the organiser. You can find the terms and conditions on the website of the partners, with whom you book the activity.
