

A wealth of churches

Discover the rich history of no fewer than eight historic churches (/8-historical-churches) in Mechelen. In the city centre there are four Gothic and four Baroque churches of exceptional quality. And that immediately makes Mechelen the number one city in Flanders with regard to historic churches. Each of them will surprise you with a valuable horde of (religious) masterworks. Real museums, where you can admire artistic gems and religious heritage. Follow a special walking guide to visit the churches at your own speed and in several stages.
