

The largest public park in the historical city centre of Mechelen has a playground where children can have fun while you enjoy the tranquillity of the green surroundings.

