

What could be more characteristic of the local community than the vibrant Saturday market with its colours, smells and fabulous fare! So a visit to one of the largest markets in the region is a good way to familiarize yourself with the authentic culture. Stop for the occasional refreshment, bag your wares and mix with the friendly locals. This atmospheric weekly market in the city centre is a must!

Where?

Mechelen city centre (Grote Markt – IJzerenleen – etc.)

When?

Every Saturday morning from 8, except on January 1st and December 25th and during the Maanrock festival.

